. . . oh, I have slipped the surly bonds
of earth
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings
Sunward I've climbed, and joined the tumbling mirth
Of sun-split clouds — and done a hundred things
You have not dreamed of — wheeled and soared and swung
High in the sunlit silence.
Hov'ring there,
I've chased the shouting wind along, and flung
My self through footless halls of air.
Up, up the long, delirious, burning blue
I've topped the windswept heights with easy grace
Where never lark, or even eagle flew.
And, while with silent, lifting mind
I've trod
The high untrespassed sanctity of space,
Put out my hand, and touched the face of God.

In Memoriam

Although he passed away shortly after taking office, Dr. Grandy will be remembered with admiration and respect by all who knew him. His memory, perpetuated through the Dr. L. Munro Grandy Scholarship Fund, will remain with us through the coming years.

Dedication

A person with the ability to make a lasting impression upon those he meets is extremely rare. In this respect, we at Scituate High School may consider ourselves indeed fortunate in having known three such people. Miss Brown, Mr. Burgess, and Mr. Johnson have earned the lasting gratitude and respect of those whom they have taught and take with them our sincere good wishes in their retirement.

To the Class of 1965:

In a few years each of you has lived during an exciting period in world history. Since you were born television has become a household fixture. Jet airliners have been projecting people at great speed over the earth. During your high school years spacemen and Telstar have become realities.

You may think all inventions of great value are now developed; that the progress of man has reached its apex. I assure you these conclusions are not true. Thousands of young adults graduating this year are the best educated high school students in history. Collectively, you have traveled farther, read more, and acquired deeper knowledge than any prior generation.

Your continued success in college and in life will depend not so much on what you know but upon your attitude toward your fellowman and yourself. As information and knowledge have been stored in your minds, we pray, your teachers and I, that you have fixed love within your hearts to guide the use of your abilities and efforts.

Sincerely yours,

W. A. Shannon

Coky
Coky came to Scituate High in October on a six months' visit from his native Guatemala. He rapidly became the school attraction as his flashing smile created instant friendliness among the students and faculty. Many of us will remember Coky as a high-spirited little character whose broken English, weird facial expressions, wide smile, and hilarious pantomines brought many laughs and happy moments to his American friends.

Because of this international friendship, Coky has asked to extend his stay at Scituate to finish his high school education. He wants you, the Class of 1965, to know that you have made his visit an experience he'll remember and treasure as a highlight of his life. Our deepest thanks to you all.

Tammy Tell Me True

This year the class of 1965 presented "Tammy Tell Me True." This humorous story set in modern-day Mississippi River country tells the tale of a naive, idealistic young river-boat girl, Tammy Tyree, versus a big-town college. Tammy Tyree has to outmaneuver her two-timing boyfriend, the strait-laced Dean of Women at the college, and a fortune hunter with designs on her old aunt's millions. In this rather one-sided battle, her only allies are her wily old grandpa, a young professor who cares more about her than he allows her to see, the slightly batty millionaire aunt, and a retired professor who was once president of the college. Superb acting by the cast, reflecting Mrs. Brown's admirable coaching, made this play one of the funniest and most successful productions seen in Scituate.

Hey y'all, that don't look like coffee to me!

Finishing second in the league, the 1964 track team had a truly excellent season. Their only loss came at the hands of Cohasset in a heartbreaking meet which was decided by the relay.

Although much of the team graduated, a fine coaching staff and many experienced under-graduates point to another successful season.

The 1964-1965 Music Department program was the largest and most successful in the entire history of Scituate High School.

The band, which has grown in number from sixteen to fifty since Mr. Morrill became conductor, presented intricate half-time shows at every football game and provided spirited music for the cheerleaders and spectators. The striking uniforms boosted the morale of the students to such an extent that they worked harder than ever and placed second in competition with other class "C" bands last spring. The band, chorus, Triple Quartet and Chanterelles presented outstanding Christmas and Spring Concerts. The Stage Band provided the vital background for "The Guy From Venus" and "So This Is Paris."

The entire Music Department has accepted an invitation to perform at the New York World's Fair on June twenty-seventh of this year. If the enthusiastic response which the Music Department generates continues, this trip will be a grand climax to an exceptional and fun-filled year.

"The Guy from Venus"

March 13,14, 1964

I'm Sophia Loren!

Oops, my garter slipped!

Hey, Green Giant, what's new besides ho-ho-ho?

If that's Sophia Loren I'm a Martian!

The third annual musical comedy, "The Guy from Venus," which starred Ellen Brown and Jimmy Herbert, was a success. The story centered around the problems of a small department store and the efforts of a Venusian to solve them. The comedy roles were amply played by Kathy Swiger and Roger Cahoon.

Now let's try it with music!

Sophia Loren! Where?

Student Council

The main reason for a Student Council is to express the opinions of the student body to the administration and to help regulate school activities. The Student Council constantly seeks student opinions and considers all suggestions for improving the school. This year the activities of the council ranged from instituting a social calendar to rewriting the student handbook. Through the combined efforts of the members and our capable advisor, Mrs. Cote, the Student Council has had a successful year.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society exists as a unique group within the high school structure. Its members, chosen from the junior and senior classes, must exhibit clearly the qualities of scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Membership in the National Honor Society is one of the highest honors a high school student can attain.
